TENNIS WAREHOUSE RENEWS ATP WORLD TOUR PARTNERSHIP

LONDON – Tennis Warehouse has renewed its partnership with the ATP World Tour, as the Official Online Tennis Store of the ATP through 2017.

Since 2000, Tennis Warehouse has powered the online tennis store for the ATP World Tour via the ATP's flagship website, ATPWorldTour.com. With locations in the U.S, Europe and Australia, Tennis Warehouse is able to service fans worldwide.

"We are very excited to celebrate our 15th year of partnership with the ATP World Tour and look forward to many more," said Don Hightower, President of Tennis Warehouse. "The new ATP website is very impressive and provides fans with even greater access to their favorite ATP players and tournaments, enabling them to engage with the sport better than ever before."

The partnership with Tennis Warehouse, which began in 2000, represents the ATP's longest standing retail partnership.

"Tennis Warehouse has been a terrific partner of the ATP World Tour for many years and, following the launch of the ATP's new website, we look forward to continuing our successful partnership through to 2017," said Chris Kermode, ATP Executive Chairman & President.

About the ATP

The ATP is the governing body of the men's professional tennis circuits - the ATP World Tour, the ATP Challenger Tour and the ATP Champions Tour. With 62 tournaments in 31 countries, the ATP World Tour showcases the finest male athletes competing in the world's most exciting venues. From Australia to Europe and the Americas to Asia, the stars of the 2015 ATP World Tour battle for prestigious titles and Emirates ATP Rankings points at ATP World Tour Masters 1000, 500 and 250 events, as well as Grand Slams (non ATP events). At the end of the season only the world's best eight qualified singles players and doubles teams will compete for the last title of the season at the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals. Held at The O2 in London, the event will officially crown the 2015 ATP World Tour No.1 presented by Emirates. For more information, please visit www.ATPWorldTour.com.
