ROLEX SHANGHAI MASTERS TALKING POINTS

- World No. 2 Alexander Zverev leads the ATP Tour in match wins this season (62) and aims to reach his 14th ATP Masters 1000 final, second in Shanghai (2019), and first on hard courts since 2024 Paris. 29-year-old takes a 6-1 Lexus ATP Head2Head lead vs. World No. 26 Alejandro Davidovich Fokina. If he wins his semi-final match on Saturday, he will officially become the 30th World No. 1 in PIF ATP Rankings history on November 2, regardless of his result in Vienna, after already clinching ATP Year-End No. 1 Presented by PIF.
- Spanish No. 3 Davidovich Fokina is on an 8-match winning streak on Chinese soil following his run to Chengdu title three weeks ago and advancing to his first Shanghai SF, including wins over No. 10 Tiafoe, saving 1 MP, and 2023 champion Hurkacz. Now, the 27-year-old aims to become the fourth lowest-ranked Shanghai finalist after No. 204 Vacherot and No. 54 Rinderknech last year and No. 29 Simon in 2014.
- 2019 champion Daniil Medvedev is the only former Rolex Shanghai Masters champion remaining in the field, as he attempts to extend his 11-1 record in China this year following Hangzhou title and run to Beijing SF. 30-year-old leads the ATP Tour in hard court wins in the season (34) and aims to become the first man to reach 5 hard court finals this year. The World No. 6 takes on World No. 13 Rafael Jodar in their first meeting.
- 20-year-old Rafael Jodar became the youngest semi-finalist in tournament history and the second man to rally from a set down four times to reach ATP Masters 1000 SF after Martin at 1998 Paris. He could join Haas at 2001 Stuttgart as the only players to reach final in ATP Masters 1000 series history after coming back from a set down in every match played (first in 5 matches). He seeks the biggest win of his career to become the second-youngest man to record 20 ATP Masters 1000 wins in a season after Nadal, 19, in 2005 (28 wins).
- If Medvedev defeats Jodar on Saturday, World No. 4 Ben Shelton will qualify for the Nitto ATP Finals for the second consecutive season and join Zverev and Alcaraz in this year's lineup so far.
