ATP WELCOME

Following a historic finish to the 2016 season in which the year-end No.1 Emirates ATP Ranking went down to the wire for the world's top two players in the final match of the season, there is much to look forward to in 2017.

The world's greatest athletes are once again set to battle across 64 ATP World Tour tournaments, in addition to the four Grand Slams, in their quest for prestigious titles, coveted Emirates ATP Rankings points, and the ultimate crown of finishing the season as the year-end ATP World No.1, presented by Emirates.

While Andy Murray and Novak Djokovic look set to continue their rivalry at the top of the game, the 2017 season will also see the highly-anticipated return of Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal, as well as the likes of Stan Wawrinka, Milos Raonic, Kei Nishikori, Juan Martin del Potro, and many more. Elsewhere, Dominic Thiem, Nick Kyrgios and Alexander Zverev are among the younger players that look well positioned to continue their charge up the Emirates ATP Rankings.

On the tournament side, the 2017 season will see a number of important developments, with an additional grass court event in Antalya, Turkey, in the week before Wimbledon.

This year will also see the inaugural Next Gen ATP Finals take place in Milan, Italy, in November. A season-long "Emirates ATP Race to Milan", starting in January, will see the world's best up-and-coming talents battle to qualify for the tournament. The #NextGen players coming through on the ATP World Tour continue to gather huge momentum, and this event will provide a platform for the stars of the future to showcase their talents on a global stage.

The 2017 season will culminate once again at the season-ending ATP Finals in London. Since moving to The O2 in 2009, the tournament has been on a record-breaking run, with more than 2 million fans coming to watch the very best the game has to offer. Each year, The O2 delivers the perfect stage for a fitting finale to our season.

May I take this opportunity to invite you to join us on what we expect to be a thrilling journey in 2017. This Media Guide offers a wealth of information on the tournaments and players who will showcase the game around the world, and we thank you for your coverage and support of men's professional tennis.

Best wishes,

Chris Kermode

ATP WORLD TOUR TIMELINE

The ATP is in its fifth decade as a leading governing body in professional tennis. The organisation was formed in 1972 when a handful of the game's top players met in a secluded stairwell at the US Open to discuss the need for a players' association. Under the leadership of newly-elected executive director Jack Kramer and president Cliff Drysdale, the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) came to life with a goal of changing the game for the better.

THE FOLLOWING IS A LOOK BACK AT KEY ATP EVENTS OVER THE PAST FIVE DECADES:

1973: The ATP establishes the computer ranking system, providing a fair analysis of a player's performance and creating an objective way to determine entries into tournaments.

1974: The Men's International Professional Tennis Council (MIPTC), made up of ATP, ILTF and tournament directors, is formed to govern the sport as an "independent, democratic, international body for the administration of professional tennis".

1976: The ATP Doubles computer rankings begin on March 1.

1980: The ATP sets up a player pension fund.

1985: At the request of the ATP, MIPTC passes a Drug Testing Rule, making tennis the first professional sport to institute a workable and well-designed drug testing programme.

1986: In an effort to make the calendar more coherent, the MIPTC moves the Australian Open a month back to January (1987) and The Masters a month earlier to December (1986).

1988: The players, under ATP CEO Hamilton Jordan, hold a press conference in the US Open parking lot to announce that they will assume more control of the game. "Tennis at the Crossroads" outlines a plan for players to form a new tour. Tournament directors representing many of the world's leading events voice their support for the players and join them in what was to become a partnership unique in professional sports – players and tournaments each with an equal voice in how the circuit is run.

1990: Sponsored by IBM, the ATP Tour era begins with an equal partnership between players and tournaments. The circuit features 76 tournaments in 28 countries on six continents, with prize money averaging a 50% increase at the events. Indianapolis tournament director Mark Miles is named ATP CEO.

1993: The ATP Tour extends its global reach, adding Arabian Gulf tournaments in Doha and Dubai.

1995: The ATP Tour launches its first ATP web site, ATP Online.

1996: The Mercedes-Benz/ATP partnership begins with a four-year agreement.

1997: The ATP Senior Tour of Champions is sanctioned.

1998: Players form a new STARS program as the ATP Tour helps make players more accessible to media, sponsors and fans. ATP broadcasts extend their reach to more than 200 countries.

2000: The ATP Tour changes its name to ATP for 2001, introduces a new logo and rebrands its nine premier tournaments the Tennis Masters Series.

2005: Etienne de Villiers is named ATP Chairman in June. The year-end Tennis Masters Cup is held in Shanghai.

2007: The ATP introduces a number of changes to the Tour, including the elimination of best-of-5 set finals, as well as reduced draw sizes at five ATP Masters Series events to lessen the physical demands on top players and enhance TV scheduling. The ATP also increases prize money for the first time since 2000 and creates a new multi-million dollar marketing fund.

2008: All worldwide tennis organisations (WTA, ITF, ATP & Grand Slams) form a Tennis Integrity Unit.

2009: Adam Helfant takes over as ATP Executive Chairman and President in January. Three new tournament categories are introduced as the circuit is rebranded ATP World Tour: Masters 1000, 500 and 250 level events. The season-ending event takes place at The O2 in London for the first time.

2012: Brad Drewett takes over as ATP Executive Chairman & President in January.

2013: Brad Drewett passes away in May from Motor Neurone Disease. In the preceding 12 months, he had led discussions resulting in significant prize money increases for all players across all Grand Slams.

2014: Chris Kermode takes over as ATP Executive Chairman and President on January 1. The season-ending Barclays ATP World Tour Finals sets a new attendance record of 263,560 – the biggest in its 45-year history.

2015: The ATP secures an enhanced partnership with Emirates that sees the award-winning airline become the Tour's Premier Partner through 2020. The ATP launches its own social media network, MyATP, now on Vixlet. The Tour achieves an all-time attendance record with 4.5 million fans attending on-site.

2016: The ATP announces the launch of the Next Gen ATP Finals, set to take place in Milan from November 2017 featuring players aged 21-and-under.

PR & MARKETING FAQs

(FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS)

Q: How do I get a media credential for a tennis tournament?

A: Each ATP World Tour and Grand Slam tournament is responsible for the media accreditation. Please contact the tournament press officer listed in the tournament directory (pages 19-30). Please remember some tournaments have very early media credential deadlines so apply early.

Q: How do I interview a player at a tournament?

A: A member of ATP PR & Marketing is on site at all ATP World Tour events and will liaise with the media for all interviews. Interviews can be either post-match availability (in the press conference room or in the mixed zone) or special features. For features as well as photo shoots and TV show appearances, please contact a member of ATP PR & Marketing (below) before the tournament starts.

Q: What is the mixed zone?

A: It is a different approach to post-match player interviews allowing a more efficient interaction between media and players. The mixed zone facilitates immediate contact between media and athletes right after a match in a designated area near the entrance to the Locker Room. At the beginning of each day of main draw play, the ATP will determine the list of press conferences with the rest of the player post-match interviews taking place in the mixed zone.

Q: How do I receive ATP media information such as tournament updates, press releases, ATP Tennis Weekly?

A: If you wish to receive all ATP media information by email, please send a request to Alison Kim (akim@atpworldtour.com). For all media information including live scoring, miscellaneous statistics, updated player bios and results, please visit ATPWorldTour.com

Q: How do I get footage of tennis matches for broadcast purposes?

A: Please contact Graham Smith (graham.smith@atpmedia.tv)

Q: How do I get photos of tennis players and tournaments?

A: Please contact any independent photographer or agency.

REINVENTING THE TENNIS EXPERIENCE

Imagine knowing that the serve will go out-wide. Imagine a machine with a mind – one that tells you the exact degree to bend for the perfect backhand. Imagine being anywhere on court from wherever you are – to feel the inches that separate a winning ace from a winning return. This is the future of tennis. And it will be shaped with data-driven analytics, virtual reality, and artificial intelligence. Infosys is exploring these new experiences so you can see the game you love like never before.

Because when you see more, you can be more.

From 1877 to 1921 the men's singles was decided on a challenge round system, the previous year's winner standing out until a winner of the so-called All Comers event qualified to challenge. The same system applied in the men's doubles from 1886 to 1921. It never applied in the women's or mixed doubles. In those years, the presence of the previous year's winner in the last match means that the title was decided in a challenge round. The Championships were staged at the All England Club, Worple Road, Wimbledon, from 1877 until 1921 when the club moved to Church Road, Wimbledon.

The men's singles tournament was held at The Casino in Newport, RI in August 1881 and was there until 1914. The tournament moved to the West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills, N.Y. and was there from 1915-1920. It moved to the Germantown Cricket Club in Philadelphia and was held from 1921-23. In 1924, after the completion of the West Side Tennis Club Stadium, the championship returned to Forest Hills and was held there through 1977. The tournament was held on grass from 1881-1974, clay (Har-Tru) from 1975-77 and on hard courts at USTA's tennis complex at Flushing Meadows, N.Y. from 1978-present.

Before 1890, the national doubles championship was played in conjunction with the singles tournament. From 1890 to 1906 tournaments were held in the East and West, and the sectional winners at these meets then played off for the privilege of meeting the standing-out champions in the challenge round. The 1918 championship was a playing-through tournament, the sectional and preliminary doubles and the challenge round having been done away with.
