ATP & CHALLENGER ADDENDUMS

9.03 FedEx ATP Rankings

A. Commitment Players & B. Non-commitment Players

- 1) Due to the suspension of the ATP Tour and impact of COVID-19 pandemic, the FedEx ATP Ranking from 16 March 2020 has been frozen except for players serving suspensions for Anti-Doping or Corruption offenses. Any player who is under suspension for Anti-Doping and or Corruption offenses is not eligible to have his ranking frozen for the duration period of the player's suspension for Anti-Doping and/or Corruption reasons.
- 2) For all other players the points from the player's 16 March 2020 ranking breakdown are frozen and will have their drop date extended by 52 weeks or until the event is played again the following year (whichever occurs first), including the points earned at the 2019 Nitto ATP Finals which will drop on the Monday following the last ATP Tour event of 2021.
- 3) Until and including the week of 15 March 2021 there are no mandatory events. ATP Masters 1000 and 500 events commitment is eliminated.
- 4) Results from events following the resumption of the ATP Tour in 2020, up until and including the tournament week of 15 March 2021 will be added into the ATP Rankings in the following manner:
  - a) ATP Tour/Grand Slam Level Events:
    - 2019 event will be replaced from a player's breakdown if that player plays the same event in 2020 and earns a better result.
    - 2020 event will be replaced from a player's breakdown if that player plays the same event in 2021* and earns a better result.
  - (i) A player's result will only be replaced if the result is better.
    - aa) If the result is better, it will be considered a 'best other' for ranking purposes.
    - bb) If the player does not play the 2020/21* Main Draw because he did not have a high enough ranking to be an original main draw direct acceptance and never moved into the main draw, his previous year's result will be considered a 'best other'.
  - (ii) If a player earns fewer points or ties his previous year's result, his previous year's result will remain in his ranking.
  - (iii) If a player did not play the previous year's event, his result will count if better than the lowest "best other".
  - (iv) If a player earned a 0-point ranking penalty his result can/will replace the 0-pointer if better.
  - (v) If a player earned a 0-point ranking penalty and does not play the following year's event his previous year's 0-point ranking penalty will remain in his ranking.
  - (vi) A player cannot count the same ATP Tour/Grand Slam result twice in his breakdown.
    - aa) Example: cannot count '19 and '20 or '20 and '21* result from the same tournament, will use the better of the two results.
  - (vii) An ATP Tour/Grand Slam qualifying result can/will be replaced by the main draw of that tournament and vice versa.
  - (viii) New results from ATP Tour/Grand Slam events in 2021 that replace the 2019 or 2020 event will stay on until event is played again in-2021 the following year or 52 weeks, whichever occurs first.
- b) ATP Challenger/ITF WTT Level Events:

Players who compete in ATP Challengers/ITF WTT events post the ATP Tour suspension will use the new, 2020/2021* result to replace their worst 'best other' result if the 2020/21* result is better.

(i) A player's worst 'best other' will only be replaced if the 2020/21* result from an ATP Challenger/ITF WTT event is better.

(ii) New results from an ATP Challenger/ITF WTT that replace player's worst 'best other' will stay on the players' FedEx ATP ranking for 52-weeks.

- 5) Beginning on 15 22 March 2021, the ATP rankings will add and drop points as per the ATP Rules prior to the COVID-19 pandemic outbreak.

*Applicable for tournaments up to and including the week of 15 March 2021 only.

A. The FedEx ATP Doubles Rankings is based on calculating, for each player, his total points from his best 19 results from all eligible tournaments, including the Nitto ATP Finals (Doubles) played in the Ranking period. For entry purposes there are no mandatory events.

- 1) For a player that plays any Grand Slam or Masters 1000 event upon the Tour resumption, he must earn a better result in 2020/21* to have the event be considered 'best other' for ranking purposes
- 2) For a player that does not play any Grand Slam or Masters 1000 event upon Tour resumption, the previous year's event will be considered 'best other'

*Applicable for tournaments up to and including the week of 15 March 2021 only.
