DAY ONE HIGHLIGHTS

- The top half of the draw with 32 matches are scheduled on opening day with six of the Top 10 seeds leading the way, including three former US Open champions: Marin Cilic (2014), Rafael Nadal (2013, '10) and World No. 1 Novak Djokovic (2011). Other Top 10 seeds in action: No. 4/last year's finalist Kei Nishikori, No. 7 David Ferrer and No. 10 Milos Raonic.

- On Arthur Ashe Stadium, Djokovic, who has reached the US Open final in four of the past five years (five overall), winning the title in 2011, faces Joao Souza, a 27-year-old Brazilian looking for his first career Grand Slam match win (0-6). Djokovic comes into the US Open as World No. 1 for the third straight year (fourth in five years). He leads the ATP World Tour with six titles and a 56-5 match record this season. This is the 162nd week in his career he is No. 1 in the Emirates ATP Rankings, 6th-most weeks as World No. 1.

- In the night session, Nadal, who missed last year's US Open with a right wrist injury, takes on 18-year-old Croat Borna Coric, who is the youngest player in the Top 50 Emirates ATP Rankings. Coric won the previous meeting in the Basel quarter-finals last October. Nadal comes in seeded outside the Top 3 for the first time since 2004 when he was unseeded. The 14-time Grand Slam title winner is looking to extend his Slam titles streak to 11 straight years. Coric is one of 10 teenagers in the main draw, the most at Flushing Meadows since 12 in 1990.

- On Armstrong, Nishikori brings a 2-0 head-to-head record against Frenchman Benoit Paire, who won his first ATP World Tour title last month in Bastad. Nishikori is a three-time ATP World Tour winner this year and he comes in seeded a career-best No. 4 in a Grand Slam tournament.

- In the second match on Armstrong, reigning champion Cilic opens his title defense against Argentine qualifier Guido Pella, who is 1-5 lifetime in Grand Slam matches. Last year Cilic became the first Croat to win a Grand Slam title since coach Goran Ivanisevic won Wimbledon in 2001. He won the last three rounds without losing a set over Berdych (QF), Federer (SF) and Nishikori (F). In the final match on, No. 16 seed Gael Monfils, a two-time US Open quarter-finalist (2010, '14), meets Ukrainian qualifier Illya Marchenko for the first time.

- On Grandstand, former World No. 7 Mardy Fish, who is playing in his final pro tournament, returns to Flushing Meadows for the first time since 2012. He takes on Italian Marco Cecchinato, who is playing in his first Grand Slam tournament. Ferrer follows against Radu Albot, of Moldova. Albot, who qualified last year, is playing in the US Open for the second straight year.
